Library to Reschedule Screening of Documentary “Fahrenheit 9/11” Also to be Screened will be “Fahrenhype 9/11”

SAN DIEGO – The San Diego Public Library has rescheduled the planned screening of the film “Fahrenheit 9/11,” a controversial documentary directed by Michael Moore. In addition, the Library will also show the documentary “Fahrenhype 9/11,” made as a rebuttal to Moore’s film.

The films will be shown back to back on Saturday, Nov. 6 beginning at 1 p.m. in the third floor auditorium of the Central Library, 820 E St., in downtown San Diego. The decision to reschedule “Fahrenheit 9/11” was made to avoid the appearance of influencing decisions regarding the upcoming election.

One of the most controversial and provocative films of the year, “Fahrenheit 9/11” is Moore’s searing examination of the Bush administration’s actions in the wake of the tragic events of Sept. 11, 2001.

In contrast, “Fahrenhype 9/11” attempts to refute and debunk Moore’s assertions. The film was co-written and features Fox News commentator Dick Morris.
